

Recognition for Outstanding Retired Environmental Educators Nomination Form

Do you know of an outstanding environmental educator who has retired (or is retiring) from their professional role in education, and whose contributions to the field of environmental education deserve recognition? Are you such an educator? If so, please nominate him/her – or yourself – for the Colorado Alliance for Environmental Education’s (CAEE) Recognition for Outstanding Retired Environmental Educators!

Recognition Criteria

To be considered for the Recognition for Outstanding Retired Environmental Educators, the nominee must:

- Have been an environmental educator (at any grade level, formal or non-formal, volunteer) for at least 5 years.
- Plan to retire within 1 year, or be 3 years or less beyond retirement
- Have made a significant contribution to environmental education during their career.

Recognition Details

- Nominations will be accepted throughout the year, with two deadlines for review and selection: May 1 and October 1. Nominees will be notified by mail within 2 months of these deadlines.
- Nominations will be reviewed by a panel of peer environmental education specialists.
- Recipients will receive a one-year individual membership to CAEE, a certificate, and recognition in CAEE’s member newsletter and at CAEE’s annual Awards Celebration.
- Self- or peer-nominations are acceptable. All nominees who meet the criteria will receive an award.
